- Tom Webb said that the Armistice Day March on 13th November would be an ideal opportunity to encourage residents to remember the sacrifice made by those who fought in WWI. The Scouts will be lined up along the Holt and eventually joining the march to the Church. This will be at approximately 10.40, to reach the Church for the Silence at 11.00 am.
- Also the memorial to Christopher William Boden in the Churchyard was approved by the war graves commission.
- Clerk asked what, if any, was the end result of the Youth Club's vacancy. MER said the YC committee/trustees will be continuing to be responsible for the YC, but in the absence of the Youth Club not being used as such, it had been agreed that the Guides/Brownies will be using the hut.
